NEW HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13 .- Work on the Steuart street wharf, recently assigned to the use of the army transport direct, by J. J. Moore & Co. service, is about to be undertaken. Yesterday the Harbor Commission awarded the contract for repairing and repfling the wharf and constructing an Co. addition to the shed over the structure to Newson & McNetll, whose bid of $15,372 was the lowest of several received. A bond of $7,700 will be re--quired of the contractors.

Bids for furnishing about 10,000 b rels of cement, to be used in construing four new wharves, were opened by tons (at Portland); wheat from Tacothe commission, but all were rejected, owing to the fact that George A. Newhall's bid of $2.35 a barrel provided for delivery of the cement in sacks and was the other bids. The secretary was by Williams, Dimond & Co. structed to readvertise for bids providing for delivery of the cement "in barrels or sacks."

The sum of $1,111.13 was ordered paid Home is a place where heaven doth to Newsom & McNeill, who have completed their contract for building the More near the earth to stoop; new Fishermen's wharf at the norther- where one ly end of the seawall. A claim of $4,100 was presented to the commission by Bateman Brothers, the amount alleged to be due for extra work performed by the firm in the construction of the ferry depot several years ago. The amount was not paid at the time because of irregularity in filling the claim. The claim was referred to the State Board of Examin-
